The Eight Drunken Immortal system is one of the most famous and intriguing systems in Shaolin-Do. Grandmaster Sin Thé began teaching them more than 30 years ago and now he's going to finish them. At his annual fall seminar, he will be teaching Chung Kuo Lao and Han Shou Chi. These forms have never been taught before and will be an incredible addition to all Shaolin-Do students.

There are no prerequisites for learning this material, aside from either being a Shaolin-Do black belt or an SDA member of any rank. Show your support and thanks to Grandmaster Sin Thé for agreeing to teach both of these fantastic kata in one seminar! DVDs must be preordered and will be handed out at the seminar – no exceptions! The SDA reserves the right to refuse admittance to anyone for any reason.
