Grandmaster Sin Thé will be teaching the Shaolin Suang Shou Chien — Shaolin Two-Handed Sword form at his annual fall seminar at Lexington Catholic High School on Sunday, September 11th. The Two-Handed Sword was originally used by the generals to cut through the armor of their opponents. The sword itself is a two edge sword but it is made of ultra thick combat steel and the length is from the ground to your chest (RN17). The form has six sections with a total of 48 postures. This particular form is influenced a lot by the twisting of the waist from Pa Kua to generate a whirlwind style of power. It is almost like using Snake Pa Kua with a weapon in hand! Come learn this form and show your support for Grandmaster Sin and the Shaolin-Do Association.

DVDs must be preordered and will be handed out at the seminar – no exceptions!

Please fill out the registration form below and mail it to:
