Join Master Ben Collins when he teaches the 9-Section Chain Whip form at the Sin Thè Karate School in Lexington on Saturday, July 31st. Master Collins has performed this beautiful and exotic weapons form at numerous tournaments and demonstrations. Now it's your turn to learn this fun but challenging kata!

Video cameras are welcome and encouraged for this seminar. You can order a 9-section chain whip below, but you must preregister and pick it up at the door! If you have never used a chain whip, it is highly recommended that you bring some padding for the tip, or construct a rope version. In order to weight the end of the rope, a tennis ball on one end, or a sock filled with some soy beans will work. However, there are some spins that the rope will not work for.

Please fill out the registration form below and mail it to:
