Grandmaster Sin Thé has decided to teach the Shaolin Zhao Lian, the Shaolin Single Grass Sickle (Kama) form. It was originally developed in the Sung Dynasty (around 900 years ago) by a monk named Fu Zhi and consisted of 32 postures. Later, a warrior monk named Zhing Chi Hua completed it to its present day form of 37 postures. Those who are attending the Liu Hsing seminar can receive this form at no additional cost. Any Shaolin-Do black belt or SDA member who is not attending, or is not eligible to attend the Liu Hsing seminar, can attend by filling out the registration form below. DVDs must be preordered and picked up at the seminar. The SDA reserves the right to refuse admittance to anyone for any reason.

Please fill out the registration form below and mail it to:
